TO NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATIONS' DIRECTORS:

Growth, sometimes even survival of Non-profit organizations depends on the Directors' efficiency at raising awareness of their members and communities for their cause. Sources of funding becoming more and more scarce, many organizations have to rely on volunteer work for the day-to-day administrative and management tasks. Short of a permanent staff, the mere existence of the organization is sometimes precarious.

Thanks to Polysec, your organization can afford a wide variety of quality professional services without the obligations that a permanent intern staff imposes. You only pay for the services you use.

Ensure permanency as well as growth for your organization by letting Polysec provide you with these vital services.

To learn more about our services, please visit our website at the address indicated below or give us a call. We will be pleased to set an appointment with you and let you and your colleagues know the full extent of the services Polysec offers.
